

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

R. L. MYRICK, JR.,

Plaintiff,

v.

MARK S. GEMPELER, PATRICK
HAUGHNEY, and ANTONY
ROSARIO,

Defendants.

Case No. 18-CV-1574-JPS

ORDER

Plaintiff R. L. Myrick, Jr. proceeds in this case pro se. On October 9, 2018, he filed a civil rights complaint and a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. (Docket #1 and #2). Magistrate Judge David E. Jones, to whom this case was originally assigned, screened Plaintiff's complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, which requires the court to determine whether a complaint filed in forma pauperis is legally sufficient to proceed. (Docket #5). Magistrate Jones observed that Plaintiff's eighteen-page complaint read as an oral history of his life, not "a short and plain statement" showing that he is entitled to relief in federal court. Id. at 1 (citing Fed. R. Civ. P. 8(a)(2)). Magistrate Jones ordered Plaintiff to file a more focused amended complaint. Id. at 2. Plaintiff did so, but upon screening of the amended complaint, Magistrate Jones again found several deficiencies, including that Plaintiff appeared to be impermissibly seeking habeas-type relief in a suit for damages under Section 1983. (Docket #8). Magistrate Jones gave Plaintiff one final opportunity to submit a viable pleading. Id. at 3. Plaintiff then filed his second amended complaint. (Docket #9).

As with Plaintiff's first two complaints, Magistrate Jones screened the second amended complaint pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. He found that Plaintiff's pleading continued to suffer from a number of fatal defects. (Docket #10). Therefore, on May 1, 2019, Magistrate Jones issued a recommendation to this Court that Plaintiff's complaint be dismissed without prejudice. Id. The time for objecting to the recommendation has passed and none has been received. See Fed. R. Civ. P. 72; Gen. L. R. 72(c). The Court has considered the recommendation and, in light of its agreement with Magistrate Jones' analysis and without objection from Plaintiff, will adopt it.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Magistrate Judge David E. Jones' report and recommendation (Docket #10) be and the same is hereby ADOPTED; and

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that this action be and the same is hereby DISMISSED without prejudice.

The Clerk of the Court is directed to enter judgment accordingly.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin, this 25th day of June, 2019.
